Feed the Children

Have you seen the children who disturb our paradise
Starin' from the T.V. with empty dyin' eyes?
With no trace of anger at the betrayal of the trust
That left them to die like starvin' dogs in the famine's bitter dust

Chorus:

But if you close your eyes, you won't see them dyin'
If you close your ears you won't hear them cryin'
And if you close your mind, your heart won't condemn
If the future's born with every birth
Tell me how much is a child's life worth?
We must feed the children of the earth
Or the future dies with them

And have you seen the madmen who strut the world's stage
Threatening our destruction as they prance and preen and rage?
Rattling nuclear sabres as humanity holds it's breath
Feeding on fear and bigotry as the children starve to death
