A Good Man

A good man died today
One of this country's best
With no more to give from a life well-lived
His loyal heart's at rest

Though the world spins on now he's gone
It's a colder poorer place
While a useless piece of crap like you
Is still wasting air and space

A good man died today
An old soldier said farewell
In times of war and times of peace
He served his country well

With honour won and duty done
Held by all in high esteem
While a prick like you wouldn't have a clue
What honour and duty mean

A good man died today
We won't see his like again
Born of an age where a nobler gauge
Judged the worth of men

His legacy of integrity
And a fair go for one and all
Time after time you and your kind
Piss it up against the wall.
