Lady from Bendigo

The days of my life I've been quite self-contained
I don't feel much joy, but then I don't feel much pain
There's nothing as safe as a cold selfish heart
But now my defences have been blasted apart
By the sweet core of life that does glow
In my lady from Bendigo

Chorus:

Speak to me, talk to me, tell me you love me
Give my life purpose, show me the way
Reach for me, touch me, give me your body
And as for tomorrow, we'll live it today
Will you come when I call, will you go?
My lady from Bendigo

This is your love song and I wrote it for you
The words may sound simple but you know they are true
When I wrote them I meant them and I mean them still
You know that I love you and I always will
And if you love me let it show
My lady from Bendigo

And if ever my lovin' should cause you some pain
Just think of this love song and listen again
Remember the passion, think of the man
Remember the heart that you held in your hand
Your eyes say what I need to know
My lady from Bendigo.
