The Song

Somewhere there's the song deep inside of me
I feel it tearin' at my heart in it's longing to be free
But when I try to let it fly, it fades and then it's gone
If I can't free the heart again, I'll never write the song

Somewhere there's the tune, straining to be heard
A melody to stir the soul just waiting for the words
But all I wrote was shifting smoke, the fire burned down too soon
If I can't light the fire again, I'll never write the tune

Somewhere there's the man I used to know quite well
Lost touch with him along the road, where or why I just can't tell
He chose to stay in yesterday, leaving me to stumble on
If I can't find that man again, I'll never write the song
